MANY COUNTY GROUPS PLAY SANTA TO KIDS

Numerous Adams County organizations and some individuals are playing Santa Claus to the children under county care again this Christmas.

Mrs. John Naugle, visitor for the Adams County Child Welfare Services, this week began distribution to the homes and institutions in which the 90 children under county care are located the various gifts purchased for them by church groups, service clubs and others during the month.

As in the past the gifts largely represent the wishes of the children themselves.

GET WHAT THEY ASK

In October, Mrs. Naugle asked the foster parents and others taking care of the children to find out three choices for Christmas presents from each child old enough to make such a preference. The wishes ranged from footballs and other athletic equipment to toys to watches, cameras and even jewelry for some of the older girls.

At the November meeting of the advisory committee of the Child Welfare Services, Chairman Vernard Group presented the members a list of Christmas wants as expressed by the children, who range in age from one year to 20.

Then the members of the advisory group contacted various organizations to see if they would donate the gifts. Some organizations took the name of an individual child and have purchased the three articles wanted — and added a few more of their own. Some, like the East Berlin Lions, gave a large number of toys, listing the toys by ages and asked the Child Welfare group to divide the toys as needed. Some organizations gave cash and asked Child Welfare workers to make the purchases. Most, however, were purchased by an individual or organization for an individual child.

All of the donors will receive thank-you notes. Where the child is old enough, he will write the letter himself. For the little ones, foster parents or others will write the letters in the name of the child.

Among groups which donated, in addition to the East Berlin Lions, were the Fairfield Men's nonite Church; St. Paul's Lutheran, Littlestown; Gettysburg Presbyterian Church, the Soroptimists, the Trinity Club; Christ Lutheran Church, Gettysburg; the Adams County Farm Women's Club, the Prothuma Sunday School Class of Uriah EUB Church, the Wensville Lutheran Sunday School, the Women's Guild, the Churchmen's Brotherhood and the Star Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran, New Oxford; the Refugee Sunday School Class of the Abbottstown Lutheran Church, the Greater Conewago Presbyterian Church Sunday School, the Eastern Star of Gettysburg, the Mary Grace School Class of United Church of Christ of New Oxford and the following groups from St. James Lutheran Church here: Mrs. Howard's Class, the Senior Department, the 50-50 Class, Intermediate Department, Young Adult Department, Lydia Class, Men's Bible Class, Maude Miller Class, the Mothers' Class and Good Samaritan Class.

Gifts Are Short Of Needs At Red Cross

More gifts were reported by the Red Cross chapter for its holiday cheer fund today but there was a long list of families for which no funds are yet available for food and clothing at Christmas. Mrs. Peggy P. Hill, the chapter's executive secretary, said today.

Most recent contributions were listed today as follows: $10 from Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Hoffman and $5 each from Mr. and Mrs. J. Willis Weigle, Mrs. David Blaser Jr. and Mrs. Lena Fortenbaugh.

Mrs. Hill said 20 families have "been taken care of" for Christmas. Eighty more families remain on a verified list of folk in the county who need help.

The Red Cross office will be closed December 24 so that Friday, December 23, will be the last day on which donations for the Christmas gifts fund can be accepted.

SANTA ASKS LETTERS BY TUESDAY NIGHT

Santa Claus Thursday evening told the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce at its meeting in the Western Maryland Railway depot that he wants all of the children who are going to write him and place the letter in the mail box at his shanty on Lincoln Square to do so by Tuesday evening.

The Jaycees were told that Santa has answered more than 200 letters already and has a large number to be answered over this weekend.

The Tuesday evening cut-off date was suggested so that Santa will have time to write a reply and get it in the mail in time for the youngster to receive Santa's handwritten letter by Christmas.

According to the report at Thursday's Jaycee meeting, Santa will be at his shanty on the square this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock and Saturday from 2 to 4 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening. Monday through Friday of next week he will welcome the youngsters at the shanty each evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Two Big Airliners, One A Jet, Collide In Snow Storm Over New York City; Believe 124 Dead; Set Block Ablaze

NEW YORK (AP)—Two big airliners, probing for a landing in a snowstorm, collided with a roar today and plunged like flaming rockets into the city, with 124 believed dead.

The crashes loomed fire and terror on the ground. One plane, a United Air Lines DC8, jet, plummeted into a heavily populated section of Brooklyn, setting an entire block of apartment buildings and shops ablaze. Walls were shattered and debris scattered like bomb fragments.

CHURCH DEMOLISHED

A church was demolished. It was the first crash in America of a pure jet carrying passengers. There were 83 persons aboard. The other plane, a Trans World Airline Constellation with 42 aboard, raked over the Miller Field section of Staten Island and struck in harbor water. It also started fires in structures in the area.

Out of the 125 persons on the two planes, only one survivor was reported, an 11-year-old boy, plucked from the wreckage of the crash in Brooklyn. Earlier reports of other survivors on Staten Island were discounted.

CRASHED IN SNOW

The crash came about 10 a.m., with a heavy snow fogging the air. The TWA plane flight 226 was bound in from Dayton and Columbus, Ohio, and groping for a landing at La Guardia Airport. The United Air Lines flight 826 out of Chicago was headed through the muck for Idlewild field.

The fields are about 10 miles apart, Idlewild near the south side of Long Island in Queens, and La Guardia near the North Shore.

"SOMETHING WENT WRONG"

Normally two planes approaching the two fields would be separated by being assigned to different altitudes, and by passing given points on the approaches at different times.

"But obviously something went wrong," an Idlewild field communications spokesman said. "But we don't know what—at this moment."

The disaster recalled a collision over the Grand Canyon on June 30, 1966, also between TWA and United airliners, with 128 persons killed.

MAJOR CATASTROPHE

Today's crashes created catastrophes of major proportions on the ground, as well as for the airliners.

"A whole block is afire," police said the scene in Brooklyn, an area of thickly placed apartment houses near Flatbush and 8th avenues. "It's chaotic."

Police, fire departments and hospitals rushed equipment to the crash areas.

A seven-alarm fire was sounded in Brooklyn. Mitchell Field Air Force Base on Long Island was asked for help.

FIRES BREAK OUT

Fires broke out in the wreckage of both fallen planes, and in Brooklyn flames spread to the surrounding buildings. Debris was flung over the areas. Walls of some buildings were shattered.

The TWA Lockheed Constellation struck in the water off Miller Field, Staten Island. The Coast Guard said the six survivors were picked up by helicopter, two of them critically hurt.

In Brooklyn, Agnes MacDonald told of hearing the crash from a short distance away. It "sounded like an explosion," she said. "Then I saw the smoke and ran toward the scene."

INTENSE HEAT

"There was a plane, completely wrecked, in the street. The flames were so intense I couldn't get any closer than a block."

William Noble, a nearby resident, said he was in his apartment when "the wall came in. My wife was thrown toward me. Then I heard a roar. We ran out."

Ten buildings were reported afire.

For the DC8, it was the first crash in America of a pure jet carrying passengers, although a Boeing 707 jet with only a five-man crew aboard crashed on Long Island last year.

600-FT. CEILING

The United Air Lines flight 826 was out of Chicago, with 76 passengers and a crew of seven. The plane was headed for Idlewild Airport in a thick-falling snow.

The TWA plane was destined for LaGuardia airport, and being watched on radar scope as it came in, when the image suddenly disappeared from view.

The ceiling at the time was 600 feet.

At just what point the planes collided was uncertain. Brooklyn and Staten Island are separated by the New York Harbor, and at the outer narrows are a half-mile apart.

A dispatch from Fort Lamy, Chad, in central Africa, made it seem possible that the emperor was back in his kingdom, however. The dispatch said Selassie had landed at Fort Lamy Thursday night and continued his journey eastward, intending to land in Asmara, Eritrea, where forces loyal to him apparently are in.

SLEET, SNOW, RAIN BATTER STATE TODAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Winter in its bitterest mood blew up a fresh storm across Pennsylvania today, spreading a treacherous mixture of rain, sleet and snow.

The fresh assault came before the worst hit regions of the state had finished the staggering cleanup job from the two-day snowstorm early in the week.

In the Philadelphia area, an additional accumulation of one to two inches of snow was forecast, with the snow expected to end by late afternoon. Temperatures are unlikely to go over the freezing mark—32 degrees.

The combination of continued cold and more snow means further hazard for motorists and pedestrian on slick highways and streets.

TRAFFIC TIED UP

In Western Pennsylvania, snow started falling early in the day, first to the north, then in the south, depositing up to two inches in Greensburg, Erie, Washington, Butler and other cities. Traffic was tied up for a while in Washington and several accidents were reported.

The central part of the state also had an overlay of snow, making travel even more dangerous on roads already icy.

The warning flag was raised for traffic generally. Cindering crews got busy on the turnpike and expressways. Lesser road got as much attention as available men and machines would permit.

Tonight's low temperatures will range from 10 to perhaps the low 20s, forecasters said, with clear, cold weather expected over most of the state Saturday. More snow flurries are forecast for the western areas tonight and Saturday. Pennsylvania's reckoning of deaths attributable to one of the worst December storm periods in history now stands at 33.

Real Stomach Trouble Here

CHICAGO (AP)—Surgeons who made a medical checkup on a mental patient because he was suffering from swollen ankles recovered 258 objects from his stomach.

Their report, published today in the Journal of the American Medical Association, listed these among items recovered:

Twenty-six keys, 39 nail files, 3 sets of rosary beads, 16 religious medals, a bracelet, a necklace, 3 metal chains, a beer can opener, a knife blade, 4 nail clippers, 3 pairs of tweezers and 88 assorted coins.

ANEMIC TOO

An "amorphous mass of eroded metal sludge" weighing more than three pounds also was removed by surgery.

The man was a patient in a Brooklyn, N.Y., hospital. The operation was reported by Drs. Alan A. Kane, Benjamin Ginn and Bernardo A. Mora Jr.

Despite the large amount of iron material oxidizing in the man's stomach he was suffering a moderate anemia, a condition sometimes due to iron deficiency.

SYMPHONY'S

spersing more familiar compositions of famed composers and the delightful favorite "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell.

The ballet numbers from Faust that concluded each half of the program had special appeal.

Dr. Hart's tribute to Paul Chalfant, the concertmaster, was shared by the audience. Chalfant, publisher of the Waynesboro Record-Herald, is well remembered as the violin soloist in one of the orchestra's concert last year. An artist in his own right, he is a favorite with Gettysburg audiences.

APPROPRIATE ENCORE

Dr. Hart again turned to the ever-popular Leroy Anderson for his encore, using appropriately "Sleigh Ride" to conclude his very fine concert on a snowy night. The only regret was the decision not to give the other Anderson encores that had been anticipated and which were equally appropriate to the season and to the concert.

WEATHER HURT

Ticket sales, part of which were handled by the Warner Hospital Auxiliary, far exceeded the attendance which, solely due to seasonal activities and, much more so, by bad road conditions, was sharply below that which is normal for the concerts of this fine orchestra.

The mid-December date, compelled by the busy schedule of many of the musicians and of Dr. Hart, would have proven a small obstacle but icy road conditions, following the fact that many roads had just gotten opened for travel, could not be foreseen and proved an insurmountable factor.

PLANE MORE CONCERTS

Nevertheless, the Gettysburg Symphony is consistently proving itself as a valuable cultural asset not alone to those who are interested in and love good music but also to the youth of the area. The concert Thursday night offered the added attraction of a display by the Gettysburg Photographic Society which was recently displayed in the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts in Hagerstown.

It was announced also that the Gettysburg Symphony Orchestra will appear on the Consolidated Artist List of Community Concerts, affiliated with Columbia Artists Management during the 1961-62 season.

Announcement will be made later of future concerts of the orchestra and also of the Youth Concerts that are being planned . . . MSS

Laos Capital Is Defended Against Reds

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Artillery fire raked Laos' capital of Vientiane with a devastating pattern today as anti-Communist Gen. Phoumi Nosavan's forces battled to throw leftist remnants out of the city.

Gen. Phoumi said the enemy was beginning to retreat.

American informants claimed Russians or Communist North Vietnamese were serving the guns, laying precision fire across the center of the city.

"I have helped train Laotian artillerymen and have never seen them shoot like this before," one American said.

The U. S. State Department pledged Thursday full support to the new Laotian government of Prince Boun Oum and Gen. Phoumi and promised assistance if necessary for Laos to maintain its freedom.

Fragmentary radio reports from British and American diplomats holed up in the battleground capital indicated Phoumi had consolidated his hold on the southern section of the battered and burning city.

Phoumi's troops were reported driving on the northwestern sector where pro-Communist Pathet Lao guerrillas and paratroopers under the command of Capt. Kong Le kept a foothold. Pockets of resistance slowed mopping up action.

Dispatches from Savannakhet, the rightist headquarters, said Phoumi had surveyed the city by helicopter and reported that troop-laden trucks were leaving the airport, a few miles outside the city, a possible indication that the leftists were retreating to the jungle.

Phoumi claimed his 1st Paratroop Battalion had speared close to the airport, where the main body of about 2,000 leftists is concentrated.

Phoumi's army is estimated at about 2,000, but all his forces may not be engaged.

RADIO TIES CUT

Cairo dispatches said radio communications with Asmara airport were suddenly cut today.

Selassie landed briefly at Roberts Field in Liberia late Thursday on a flight from Brazil after cutting short a state visit to that South American country. He took off again.

Violent gun battles raged Thursday in the narrow streets of Addis Ababa, the capital, and the Ethiopian radio said several civilians had been killed or wounded in an "inhuman massacre."

Reports trickling through broadcasts and from foreign diplomats in Ethiopia said there also had been hand-to-hand fighting in Asmara, capital of Eritrea, and Harar, capital of the country's largest province.

Ethiopian Ambassador Teferi Chareou in Stockholm, who said the revolutionary government was "non-Communist and neutral," reported that the fighting broke out when word spread that the emperor was hastening back home.

Gen. Merid Mengesha, Selassie's minister of defense, was reported by the Ethiopian Embassy in London to be massing troops

Vet P. O. Clerk At New Oxford Retires

Mrs. Mary Grace Stock, who has been a clerk in the New Oxford post office for more than 24 years, retired on disability effective December 8 according to an announcement by Postmaster Goldie M. Bower.

Mrs. Stock was presented with a gift by her associates in the post office.

John A. Robinson, grocery store owner of a few years ago and lately employed as a mechanic by Paul Wagner, Inc., New Oxford, assumed the position in the New Oxford post office. He was selected from a certificate of eligibility issued by the U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Harrisburg, as a career employee in the postal service.

Gen. Mengesha claimed that a "few disloyal troops" of the emperor's bodyguard had forced Crown Prince Asfa Wassan, 44, the emperor's eldest son, to assume figurehead leadership of the revolt and broadcast claims that all the armed forces were supporting the coup.

This was "entirely untrue," asserted Mengesha's proclamation, adding: "The army, air force and navy together are ready to destroy these criminals."

MORE SPECULATION

Still later in the evening Kennedy touched off more speculation regarding his forthcoming choice for secretary of the Treasury. He did so by conferring at his home with Eugene R. Black, president of the World Bank. Black told newsmen the two had talked about "the financial situation."

Black has figured since Kennedy's election as a possibility for the treasury post. But most of the attention on that position shifted a week ago to Douglas Dillon, undersecretary of state in the outgoing Eisenhower administration, after the president-elect had met with Dillon at the latter's Washington home. Dillon has a background in the investment banking business.

As for Robert Kennedy, 35, and the attorney general's post, it is known that the president-elect has offered that job to his brother. But Robert, who was the future president's campaign manager, has been reported reluctant to accept because of a belief it might subject his brother to criticism for dealing out a Cabinet position to a family member.

HE'S WILLING NOW

The New York Herald Tribune said in today's edition, however, that Robert has informed the president-elect he now is willing to be attorney general. The New York Times said Kennedy's brother would be named attorney general today.

Kennedy said Thursday he had offered the job of postmaster general to Negro Rep. William L. Dawson, D-Ill., but that Dawson had turned it down. Kennedy said Dawson, 74, took the position he could be of greater service to the new administration by remaining in the House.

Kennedy promised to make a

BOY SCOUTS PLAN EVENTS

Plans for the annual merit badge show and University of Scouting of Coneywago Boy Scout District were outlined at a meeting of the district committee Thursday night in Hanover.

Norman E. Blouse was named general chairman for the merit badge show to be held Friday and Saturday, Feb. 10 and 11, as part of National Boy Scout Week activities.

William Houghland was appointed general chairman of the University of Scouting to be held in Hanover for a five-week period starting Tuesday, Feb. 14. Sites for the two events will be announced.

Robert Sadler and Bernard B. Boose were elected members-at-large of the district committee. Appointed chairmen of the various operating committees for the current year by Dr. Daniel L. Carroll, district chairman, were: Harry Koenig, organization and extension; William Houghland, leadership training; John C. Houston, camping and activities; David Greenaway, advancement; Dr. James R. Miller, health and safety; Ambrose Warner, finance; and Carroll Boyer, district commissioner.

new choice soon. There was one report that Hiram W. Brawley, 43, chief clerk of the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, was being considered for the job.

FAVORS UNKNOWN

Kennedy's choice for postmaster general appeared to be a political unknown, J. Edward Day, 46, a Los Angeles insurance executive. Day entered the picture abruptly Thursday night when it was learned he was flying to Washington.

Day was a member of Adlai Stevenson's Illinois administration when Stevenson was governor, and has been active in California politics since moving there in 1957.

DISCUSS AGE AND PROBLEMS

At a recent meeting at the YWCA, Miss Virginia Vigneron, area executive of the Pennsylvania Citizens Association, discussed with a local committee the matter of interest in the aging.

The Rev. C. E. Held, Adams County delegate to the White House conference for the aging, gave his views as did Mrs. Donald E. Myers, supervisor for the county assistance board; Mrs. Helen Tunison, county extension department; Mrs. Earl Shears, president of the Council of Church Women; Mrs. Howard Hartzell, representative of the Soroptimist Club whose national organization is financing a study of gerontology; Mrs. Ralph Heim, executive secretary of the YWCA, which in the past has conducted a Golden Age Club; Charles B. Bender, Adams County commissioner; the Rev. W. A. Geigley, former director of the PCA; Dr. W. E. Tilberg, who has made a study for the Lutheran Church, and Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler. Representatives from other interested clubs were invited but were unable to attend. The discussion was continued at the Hotel Gettysburg and reached the opinion that the Adams County Council of Community Service, which has a committee studying this matter, might be the club to work through rather than set up another organization.

Citizens who have a suggestion to offer to handle this work are asked to send them to Mrs. Buehler, R. 3.

3 BIG TRADES SEE WHITE SOX, REDS', BRAVES' CLUBS BETTER

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago White Sox, Milwaukee Braves and Cincinnati Reds have completed the biggest interleague trade of the season in deals involving three front-line pitchers and two infielders.

In midnight telephone negotiations, 24 hours before tonight's interleague trading deadline, the clubs made these switches:

1. The Braves sent hurlers Juan Pizarro and Joey Jay to the Reds for infielder Roy McMillan and a minor league player to be named later.

EACH TEAM IMPROVED

2. The Reds kept Jay and sent pitcher Cal McLish and Pizarro to the White Sox for third baseman Gene Freese.

Officials of all three clubs agreed that each team had been improved in the deals.

"I hate to give up McMillan, a fine ball player and a gentleman, but Freese will give us run production, and Jay will help our pitching staff," said Manager Freese of the Reds in Cincinnati.

GET A BOOST

President Bill Veech of the White Sox blamed pitching mainly for losing the 1960 pennant and said that "the addition of McLish and Pizarro will give the staff a boost."

At Milwaukee, Braves Gen. Manager John McHale said his club now will have the best infield in the National League with McMillan at short, Ed Matthews at third, Frank Bolling at second and Joe Adcock at first. Billy Martin will be a reserve infielder.

McLish, 35, a right-hander, had a 4-14 record for the Reds last season after a sensational 19-3 mark at Cleveland in 1959.

YOUNG SOUTHPAW

Pizarro, 23, a southpaw, was 6-7 for the Braves with a 4.54 earned-run average and right-hander Jay, 25, was 9-8 with 3.29.

McMillan, 30, batted 236 for the Reds, including 10 homers and 42 runs batted in.

Freese, who will be 27 next month, drove in 79 runs for the Sox and had 17 homers. He batted .273. He came to the Sox last season from Philadelphia in exchange for outfielder Johnny Callison.

Earlier Thursday, the Philadelphia Phillies traded pitcher Gene Conley to the Boston Red Sox for another right-hander, Frank Sullivan. Conley had an 8-14 record with the Phils last season. Sullivan was 6-16 with the Red Sox.

The interleague trading period began Nov. 21.

Italians Ready For Davis Cup

SYDNEY (AP)—Italy's Davis Cup tennis team arrived for the challenge round today, relaxed and brimming with confidence. They spent the last couple of days on a holiday in Melbourne.

"I think we will be more relaxed and in a better frame of mind against the Australians than we were against America," said Coach Jaroslav Drobný.

The team, which includes Nicola Pietrangeli and Orlando Sirola, meets Australia Dec. 26-28.

Drobný said he had noticed no emotional or psychological let-down on the part of the Italians since their 3-2 upset triumph over the Americans at Perth. "And I do not anticipate any," he said. "The boys are very loose and are very determined."

OREGON, PENN STATE ABOUT EVEN FOR TILT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Oregon will have the edge in speed but Penn State will have more depth when the two football teams meet in the second annual Liberty Bowl Saturday in Philadelphia Stadium.

Oregon is led by quarterback Dave Grosz, a 200-pound senior from Kent, Wash., who gained 1,140 yards this year in 10 games—910 by passing and 230 on the ground. Flanking him at halfbacks are speed merchants Cleveland Jones, who stands 5-3 and weighs only 148, and Dave Grayson.

Penn State Coach Rip Engle said Oregon will show the Nittany Lions "more speed than we faced all year." He singled out Grosz as a player "who does everything well."

EVEN IN ABILITY

Coach Len Casanova of Oregon sized up the Nittany Lions as a "good, big-rugged strong team." He said Penn State quarterbacks Galen Hall and Dick Hoak, who are used about equally, were "pretty even" in ability and gave the Nittany Lions a 1-2 punch. He also cited as exceptional halfback Jim Kerr.

Engle has two 11-man units of which he uses interchangeably. Hall heads the first unit and Hoak the second.

Hoak is the team's total offense leader with 680 yards—396 on 25 complete passes of 46 attempted and 284 by rushing. Hall, who passed for Penn State's only touchdown in its 7-0 victory over Alabama in last year's Liberty Bowl, passed for 448 yards (39 of 89) and gained 103 on the ground in State's nine games. Hoak and Hall each threw five touchdown passes.

Kerr, a 182-pound senior from St. Clairsville, Ohio, who will be the only non-Pennsylvanian in the starting lineup, led the Nittany Lions in rushing (338 yards); pass receiving (13 catches for 163 yards) and four extra points; and kickoff returns (8 for 158 yards).

He is probably the only college football player who has broken arches, which were suffered while he was a high school hurdler. During practice Kerr wears specially elevated shoes but reverts to the regular type on game days.

Castro, In Vicious Midnight Speech, Says U.S. Furnishes Foes With 'Special Explosive'

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Prime Minister Fidel Castro, in one of his angriest speeches, charged Thursday that enemies of his revolution were being equipped by the United States with a powerful new "special explosive."

Castro made the charge in a 2½-hour address at a midnight meeting of the Electrical Workers Union that was summoned to oust what he called traitorous leadership.

Amatory Fragnals, booted out as boss of the union in absentia, has been accused of blacking out Havana for four days with a well-placed bomb.

WHEREABOUTS UNKNOWN

The whereabouts of Fragnals is not known. Diplomatic sources said he was not among 11 known members of the union who took asylum in various embassies Wednesday.

Fragnals was one of the leaders of a march of his union to the Presidential Palace last week to protest what they claimed was an attempt by the Communist-tinged Cuban Confederation of Workers to dictate a union election.

Some members of the union claimed Wednesday night they were not allowed to enter the meeting, which paved the way for a Red-line directorate to take over. They claimed the hall was packed with pro-Castro and Communist followers.

DENOUNCES UNION LEADERS

Putting in a personal appearance at the meeting, Castro scathingly denounced the union leaders as counterrevolutionaries. His unexpected appearance underlined the gravity with which the regime viewed the first real open defiance from the labor front.

His face contorted with rage, he appeared to grope for the vilest words he could recall.

A new "special type of explosive of great power" used by the U.S. Army, he said, was being supplied to his enemies by U.S. Central Intelligence agents and "Yankee Pentagon bandits."

American-financed antigovernment elements, he added, include "puppets garbed in cassocks"—a reference to Roman Catholic priests.

"I propose to you," he said to the meeting, "that we shake up the electrical industry so that enemies will know the generous revolution can also be firm when circumstances dictate."

Will Stop Issuing Figures On Steel

WASHINGTON (AP)—In 1961 the steel industry will cease issuing figures that show whether the industry is producing as much as it theoretically can.

The figures—a percentage—long have been a standard measure of the industry's health. But the American Iron and Steel Institute, in a statement Wednesday, called the measure unrealistic.

The percentage shows the industry's output in relation to its capacity. In 1960, for example, the industry is producing at 49 to 50 per cent of capacity.

But, the institute says, this 1960 percentage is misleading for actually the year's total production has been one of the largest in history.

The institute, which has issued the percentage in the past, said it would continue issuing its other steel production statistics each week.

SANTA and the BOY FISH by Lucrece Hudgins Beale

SYNOPSIS: Vainly, Michael has searched the ocean bottom for the wreck of the ship containing the black pearl. Suddenly Costenbricker remembers the spot where the ship went down at the foot of a great cliff. They are about to seek the cliff when they find their rowboat in flames.

Chapter Eleven UNFRIENDLY SEAS

Michael and Costenbricker watched helplessly as the row boat burned to ashes.

"How could it have happened? Who could have done it?" cried Michael.

Costenbricker pointed to footprints leading from the sea to the burned out boat and back to the sea again. "There's who did it! Some monster from the deep. Oh, if I could only swim I'd go after him!" He stamped his foot in rage.

In all his days of diving Michael had found only friends in the sea. Now he shivered to think some monstrous creature might have been lurking there and watching him all the while.

Costenbricker's rage suddenly departed. "It doesn't matter, after all. We don't need the boat to find the island cliff. We'll travel by parasol."

So saying, he opened the parasol and he and Michael Scrambled in a moment later they were sailing above the islands with Costenbricker hanging over the edge of the parasol searching for the cliff.

At last he cried, "There it is—right below!" he yanked at the parasol handle and they landed gently on the top of a high cliff whose sides dropped straight down into the sea.

Michael stared at the water far, far below. "How will I ever get down there?" he quavered. "Easy," replied Costenbricker cheerfully. He started unwinding something from around his tiny waist. "I'll lower you on this!" He laid out a rope of incredible length.

While Michael secured his div-

Taneytown

TANEYTOWN — The annual Christmas program of the Taneytown Elementary School will be presented Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. No parent-teacher conferences will be held that evening.

Mrs. Hewitt MacPherson was installed as president of the Federation of Taneytown Republican Women at a meeting recently in the Taney Inn. Other officers installed were: Vice president, Mrs. James Baumgardner; second vice president, Mrs. William B. Hopkins; recording secretary, Mrs. Roy B. Kiser; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John S. Harner; chaplain, Mrs. Merle S. Ohler; and treasurer, Miss Lois M. Brown.

A rising vote of thanks was given the retiring president, Mrs. Virginia Sanders, for her work during the past year. Mrs. James Baumgardner presented each member with a piece of decorated tollware, a cup cake, with one burning candle commemorating the first anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Clutz, Keysville Rd., and Mrs. Minnie Hatch, Bluff, Ill., were Saturday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Heaps and family, Street, Md.

Mrs. E. Wayne Baumgardner and Mrs. David Hess were reported as new members. Round table discussion by committee chairmen and officers was held concerning the forthcoming year's work. The next meeting will be held Friday, January 20, at the Taney Inn.

There loomed ahead a ghostly shape on the ocean floor.

ing gear, Costenbricker carefully tied one end of the rope around a large rock. The other end he tied around Michael's waist. Then Michael dropped over the edge of the cliff and, inch by inch, Costenbricker lowered him to the sea.

When Michael looked down, he grew dizzy at the sight of the faraway water. He closed his eyes and tried not to think of what might be lying in wait below. Finally his feet touched water. Quickly he untied the rope from his waist and waved to Costenbricker who was peering down from above. Then he dove head-first into the deep.

Here was not the clear green waters he had swam in before. No golden paths of sunlight shimmered down from the surface. The water was an eerie blue and all the shapes and shadows he saw were blue. It was cold and still and silent. His heart pounding, Michael walked slowly along the clean floor, peering this way and that, expecting he knew not what.

Something cold and slimy suddenly fastened itself around his legs and held him fast. He struggled to free himself but the more he twisted and turned, the more securely he was bound.

"What'll happen now?" he groaned and he thought mournfully of Costenbricker and Santa's elves who now might never wake up.

Then he saw that he had merely stepped into a patch of giant seaweed and what held him fast was its slimy branches. Moving slowly he carefully untwined the embracing weed and broke free.

Hardly had he slipped away than he felt a sharp pain in his foot and he was trapped again. Fighting off new panic, he bent down and discovered that a shelled creature had angrily clamped its jaws around his toes.

Holding back tears of pain, he pried open the shell and limped on. He longed to return to the surface of the sea but just when he felt he could no longer stand the pain and the cold and the fright, there suddenly loomed

WAGER ON BOWL GAME

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Lions and Ducks, salmon and lobster—the Liberty Bowl is beginning to sound like a nightmarish salad bowl.

The Lions of Penn State and the Ducks of Oregon are the opponents in the football game Saturday in Philadelphia.

Gov. David Lawrence of Pennsylvania said Wednesday he has bet a lobster dinner against a salmon dinner with Oregon Gov. Mark O. Hartfield on the outcome of the game.

YOUNG BLONDE IS ABDUCTED

SULTAN, Wash. (AP)—A spunky blonde teen-ager told police she was kidnapped at knife-point Wednesday but managed to skip out on her abductor in his car.

Hazel Irene Oelrich, 17, a high school senior, said, "It was much more fun that going to school."

Hazel told police a man came to the door of her home before school, asked if her father were home, and when he learned Oelrich had gone to work, followed her inside saying he wanted to leave a note.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Oelrich, had left a few minutes earlier for the bank where they work. He is manager. Hazel said once the man was inside, "He pulled out a hunting knife about six inches long and told me to come with him."

TELEPHONE HER DAD

They got into an old car, and "He forced me to lie on the floor until we were outside the Sultan town limits," she said.

They drove to the western Washington town of Monroe, seven miles west of Sultan. The man stopped at a busy intersection where there was a phone booth.

"He made me get out of the car and get in the booth with him, Hazel said in an interview.

"He told me to call dad, and I did. We both talked to dad. I was trying to tell dad the man said he was not to call the sheriff. The man told dad if he wanted to see me again he must bring $25.00 to the phone booth in the next 20 minutes."

Hazel said the shabbily dressed man with graying hair then told her to get in the car and drive on west to Everett and he would follow in another car.

"He said he would be following me all the way. There was a white car just behind. It followed me at first, and then I didn't see it again."

She turned around, drove back to Monroe, where she telephoned her father she had escaped, then drove to her father's bank.

Hazel's adventure lasted about 1½ hours. Back in school after it was all over, a special assembly was called so she could tell fellow pupils all about it.

Westinghouse To Top 1959 Sales

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Westinghouse Electric Corp. said that its sales in the year just ending will probably be a little higher than 1959's total of $1.91 billion.

The company also said sales in 1961 should slightly exceed those in 1960. If so, the company will show a sales increase for the fourth straight year.

Westinghouse said a drop in prices on appliances and most electrical equipment has intensified the pressure on profits in recent years and this trend will continue in 1961 with some improvement expected in the second half.

TOKYO (AP)—Cambodia's Chief of State Prince Norodom Sihanouk said that he will conclude a treaty of friendship and nonaggression with Communist China during his current visit to Peiping, the New China News Agency reported.

BERN, Switzerland (AP)—Friedrich Traugott Wahlen, 61, an agricultural expert, was elected president of Switzerland Thursday for 1961.

His election by a joint session of both houses of Parliament was automatic and unopposed. The presidency rotates at one-year intervals among the seven members of the Federal Council. Wahlen was economics minister and vice president this year.

MOTHER OF 4 IS HELD AS KILLER

WELLSBORO, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Ruth Dunnigan, 28-year-old mother of four, was held in Tioga County jail today, charged with the shotgun slaying of her husband following a quarrel.

The charges were filed against Mrs. Dunnigan by detective Sgt. E. F. Strosahl of the state police. The shooting occurred at the Dunnigan home in Union Twp. Wednesday while Dunnigan and the couple's children were asleep. Dr. Harry Williams, Tioga County coroner, said Dunnigan died instantly of a shotgun blast in the heart.

State police reported that Mrs. Dunnigan had given them a signed statement in which she said the fatal shots were fired after Dunnigan had threatened her and their children. She said they had argued for several hours prior to his going to bed.

The case was assigned to the February grand jury.

Only God Can Right Our Lot

By REV. J. HAROLD MOWEN
Rector, Prince Of Peace Episcopal Church

More than 1,950 years ago, on a day which we now observe as Christmas, there was born in Bethlehem of Judea a baby who was given the name of "Jesus." His birth was hailed by some as the coming of a king, foretold by prophets and sages. But the conditions surrounding His advent were far from kingly. The stable in which we first see Him is far from that of a king's palace.

The first Christmas was so greatly unlike what the people of that day thought it would be. It is still so today. The passing of the centuries has not freed us from the pagan practices that have been thrust upon Christmas. The secular world thinks of Christmas as an event shortly following Thanksgiving Day. From then on, people jostle each other in streets and stores preparing for the King's birthday.

TRAGEDY OF DAYS BEFORE
This is the tragedy of the days before Christmas. The Christ-child of lowliness and poverty came from greater things than gaiety and merriment. His concern was for a world steeped in selfishness and hatred, from which spring the deadly evils of war and bloodshed. He came as God's Prince of Peace, the Divine Deliverer, the Saviour of our sinful world.

Only Christ can help us right our wrongs. He alone can give newness of life. He alone can bless our world with peace. What all the world needs. He alone possesses. Advent urges us to prepare room for Him. We must realize, beyond tinsel and tinsel, that He alone can right our lot:—right it individually, nationally and globally.

May the Prince of Peace bring peace of heart this Christmas Day and always.

"Clothe Naked And Feed The Starving"

REV. M. S. BARNHART JR.
Pastor, Lutheran Church

In this season of Advent, when the holiday spirit moves people to do their charitable best, benevolent organizations throughout our nation are making renewed efforts to feed the starving and clothe the naked. And in all of the charitable appeals coming from our churches you will hear the words of Jesus say "Truly, I say unto you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it unto me" (Matt 25:40). But you will also hear the agnostic say "If there is a God and He is a good God why does He not feed His starving children?"

Very early in the mission of Jesus he was tempted to do just that. The need for food in terms of number starving was no more acute in the time of Jesus than it is today. "If thou be the Son of God," suggested Satan, in the tone of the greatest agnostic, "command that these stones be made bread" (Matt. 4:3). Jesus knew that men had bodies that needed food. They were hungry. He had always lived among the poor whose every day cry was "I am hungry!" He saw hungry mothers carrying puny hungry children; fathers with thin, bony arms and legs expending more energy than their meager rations would replenish. Food and clothing presented the supreme problem of life, and how would He solve it?

TALKED OF BREAD

You will notice that the suggestion to care for the poor and the needy did not come from divine origin. The marvel of it is, that it came from Satan. From His boyhood he had been familiar with the hope of Israel. Home, synagogue, market place, where-ever men spoke of Israel's hope and destiny, the subject of bread was uppermost in their minds. A age of plenty was their dream. He dreamed their dream with compassion in His heart. He had seen beggars outside the carpenter shop in Nazareth, stretching forth empty hands. He had seen the bitter disappointment looking out of the eyes of many, and had looked upon poverty-stricken men, women and children moving on bruised feet over miles and miles of rocky roads in order to get some grain that was not there. Deep within Him and from on high voices called upon Him to fight in behalf of His people.

But to listen to the world's clamor of reason, and to found the Kingdom by appeals to bodily gratification would have made him only a "Bread Messiah," not a Saviour of souls.

CLOTHED AND FED

We do not need to argue the right of man to be properly clothed and fed. The crying shame of the age is that there is bread enough and to spare, and yet people go hungry. We need not contend for the right of men to be healthy. The entire medical world, with the help of those who love life, has set great strides in keeping people physically strong and lengthening life. Never before was there so much emphasis laid upon physical fitness and longevity. Self-preservation rides away out in front of self-denial. The call of personal comfort cries far louder than the screams of the hungry and naked. Ascetic, Prophet, Saint, Revolutionist, Philosopher, Troubler-of-society's-conscience, or whatever name may be applied to Jesus, He is the Saviour of man from all his sins and plights. When He replied, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God," that statement forever shattered "economic importance."

There will be no lack of bread, no painful wants which destroy the possibility of self-development, when God reigns. Jesus saw all that, but He saw more deeply. To make bread cheap by

DECEMBER PARADE

Market Street! Just a handful of shopping days before Christmas! The best-organized parade of the year!

Every marcher has been summoned by advertisements . . . elated by the music and decorations . . . inspired by the joy of giving. Each has a destination, an objective, a mission. And there's a kind of desperate dedication in it all: everyone searching for something someone else needs!

But never confuse the December parade with the real dedication of Christmas.

What every soul needs is not displayed in windows. And Christmas means nothing unless it means:

ALL WE REALLY NEED . . . GOD HAS GIVEN!

In the church of your choice, dedicate your life anew to the Christ Child.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Many Serious Challenges And Changes Will Be Faced By New President Of U.S.

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—In his inaugural address on Jan. 20, 1953, the new president, Dwight D. Eisenhower, spoke of "this century of trial."

It has been more than a time of trial. It has been a century of fantastic changes and of challenges without precedent, even in Eisenhower's eight years in the White House.

No one has more reason for concern about them than President-elect John F. Kennedy, since he must face both the changes and the challenges. Just to note a few, in the first 60 years of this century:

RISE OF COMMUNISM

The rise of communism in Asia and Africa, the disappearance of almost all the monarchies, the emergence of dozens of new nations from colonialism in Asia and Africa, the changing concept of war to missiles with hydrogen warheads that can be fired across oceans or from under them.

This is the world Kennedy inherits and must cope with.

The changes came in a rush in Eisenhower's prominent years.

As Allied commander in Europe in World War II he could have smashed Nazi Germany in a couple of weeks if he had had an atomic bomb. But he didn't. There wasn't any.

Yet within a few weeks after Germany gave in the United States developed enough atomic bombs—two of them—to end the war with Japan. At war's end this country was the richest and, thanks to the bombs, the most powerful.

"BROKE AND PROSTRATE"

Most of the rest of the world was broke and prostrate. Yet, by the time Eisenhower took office in 1953 America's complete dominance had started fading.

The Soviet Union by then not only had developed its own atomic bomb, ending America's monopoly on the newest kind of war, but within a few months after Eisenhower's inauguration had the hydrogen bomb, too.

Out of the ruins of war the Soviet Union leaped ahead amazingly in industry, science and influence. Western Europe, thanks to American help, came up out of poverty.

And by 1953 all over Asia and Africa new nations, determined to have a life of their own, had begun shaking off colonialism. Nothing illustrates this better than one example.

MORE AFRICA SEATS

In the United Nations the African section in 1946 had only three members: Egypt, Liberia, and Ethiopia, plus the white-governed Union of South Africa. Now it holds more seats than any other area: 25. Sixteen African nations have been admitted to the United Nations in the present session alone.

So the problems facing Kennedy abroad will be vastly more complex than those confronting Eisenhower when he first took office.

For example, just to pick one: How in these next four years to induce those new African nations with all their separate and divergent problems, to line up with the West instead of with the Soviet Union.

When Eisenhower took office there was turmoil primarily in two places: the war in Korea, which the United States was fighting; the war in Indochina which the French were fighting. Both were wars against communism.

Both wars are over now. But the world is in turmoil, and in more places, even though this country isn't involved in shooting.

There is chaos in the Congo, civil war in Laos, fighting on a vicious scale between the French and Moslems in Algeria.

Right in the American backyard, in Cuba, there is a dictatorship which calls the Soviet Union a friend and the United States an enemy. There is endless turbulence in parts of Latin America, where many people have grown to hate the United States.

Says Civil Rights Problem In North

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—Chairman John A. Hannah of the U. S. Civil Rights Commission says he is "convinced the most difficult civil rights problem is in the larger cities of the North."

Hannah said he is convinced of this because Northern cities "sweep it under the rug or run" to the suburbs.

"So far," he said, "there hasn't been a willingness to recognize that this is a major problem and something must be done about it." He suggested solution will come when "one more than half" demands it.

Hannah, who also is president of Michigan State University, expressed his views at a news conference after two days of commission hearings in Detroit, where a series of witnesses related incidents of what they termed discrimination against Negroes in housing, employment and other fields.

LAWRENCE IS DISTURBED BY JOBLESSNESS

By BILL GIBSON
HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence says he is disturbed by recent reports showing that the number of persons on unemployment compensation in Pennsylvania has risen to 381,000.

Lawrence told his weekly news conference Wednesday that the administration would join the Legislative Study Committee on Unemployment in asking Congress for a temporary extension of jobless benefits for persons who have exhausted their eligibility.

Asked the reason for the high rate of unemployment in the state, Lawrence told newsmen:

BLAMES U.S.

"IT'S PETERING OFF. The thing there is a lot of discussion about or guessing about is whether or not we are near a recession."

The governor blamed the federal government for not taking action to stimulate the economy, particularly in distressed areas.

He said he was not enough of an economist to know if the situation would get worse and added: "I'll just have to sit around and pray that it won't get worse."

NOTHING ON BOEHM

Kennedy Conference — He said Kennedy hadn't discussed with him last week the possibility of asking Dr. Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of public instruction, to take a federal post next year.
Boehm said Tuesday at his Morrisville home that he had been contacted by individuals interested in securing a pool of persons available for various cabinet positions. Boehm said it would be a difficult decision to make if he were offered the post of U. S. education commissioner. He said he could not say at this time if he would accept such a post. He declined to name the persons who contacted him to give out other details.

Marketing researchers at the University of Minnesota say American food shoppers spend an average of 23 minutes in the grocery each time they go shopping.

U. S. Senate

"We will let the future take care of itself," Lawrence said when asked to comment on speculation that he may run for the seat now held by Sen. Joseph Clark, D-Pa.

There has been persistent speculation among newsmen and politicians around the Capitol that Democratic leaders would seek to replace Clark with another candidate when his term expires in 1962.

U. S. Rep. William J. Green, Philadelphia Democratic chairman also has been mentioned as potential candidate.

PUBLIC DISPUTES

Reasons why other Democrats might try to unseat the liberal Philadelphia have never been clearly spelled out, although most of the speculation centers around the frequent public disputes between Green and Clark, particularly when the latter was Philadelphia's mayor from 1952-55.

Urban Affairs

The governor declined to say whether President-elect Kennedy had mentioned the possibility of asking either Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia, or Clark to become head of the proposed urban affairs department.

EXCELLENT CABINET

Kennedy Cabinet—Asked for his general opinion on Kennedy's cabinet selections so far, Lawrence said:

"I think they are excellent. He has been very fortunate in some of the people that he has got."

Legislative Leaders

The governor said he and other state party leaders would meet again today and discuss possible candidates to back for House and Senate Leadership posts in the 1961 General Assembly.

Democrats from both houses will pick their leaders after the party leaders meet.

TWO PACIFISTS LEAVE PRISON

DANBURY, Conn. (AP)—Two pacifists, the last holdouts in their group, have been released from the federal correctional institution under bond of $1,500 each.

William Henry, 28, of Lodi, Wis., and Richard Zink, 20, of Ambler, Pa., left the institution Wednesday.

They were part of a group of nine pacifists arrested last month for trying to interfere with the launching of a Polaris submarine.

All nine were charged with trespassing in a restricted area at Groton during the launching of the Polaris-firing nuclear submarine Ethan Allen.

Henry and Zink were transferred to the federal institution here from the New Haven State Jail, where they staged a brief hunger strike.

WILL GIVE U. S. BONDS TO AUTO BUYERS IN '61

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT, Mich. (AP) — The auto industry today studied without official comment George Romney's newest gimmick to sell more American Motors cars by offering buyers rebates of government savings bonds.

Romney announced the plan Thursday with a flourish in a news conference in a plush New York hotel. He called it sharing progress with the neglected consumer and invited the rest of the auto companies to join him.

Apparently there will be no mad rush to do so.

Privately, various auto men expressed the opinion that Romney's plan will create considerable in-blamed children playing with matches for the city fire. It started in one of the homes and quickly spread to the others, badly damaging the interiors.

An overheated stove was blamed for the Sweeney fire. There was no estimate of damages involved in the two fires.

terest and probably help his sales. IS HIGHLY REGARDED —

Romney is highly regarded by his competitors, both personally and as a shrewd business man. He is credited with singlehandedly selling the American public on the idea of a compact car—the size which currently is accounting for at least 30 per cent of all automobile sales.

Basically the program calls for a rebate of one $25 bond to each customer for each 10 per cent increase over last year's sales which American Motors accomplishes in the four months dating back to Dec. 1.

If sales increase 10 per cent, every buyer gets one $25 bond. If the increase is 20 per cent, $50 in bonds; 30 per cent means $75 in bonds; 40 per cent means $100 in bonds and 50 per cent or more means $125 in bonds.

APPLIES TO ALL BUYERS

The plan applies equally to buyers whether they purchase the tiny imported Metropolitan or the much larger Ambassador V8. But there are certain restrictions.

These include: Delivery must be made between Dec. 1 and March 31. The maximum payment is $125 in bonds. The program applies only in the United States. The rebate is not applied to cars bought by the government.

THEY WORK HARDER BECAUSE THEY RIDE EASIER!

Because they ride easier they last longer, too. They take better care of payloads and they make a long day's work a lot more pleasant for the driver. All that—primarily because of Independent Front Suspension (I.F.S.). If you think it's stretching a point to attribute that many advantages to a suspension system, you haven't driven a new Chevy with I.F.S. Take the wheel and feel its road-leveling ride, its almost total absence of shimmy and wheel fight, its ease of steering even in the big rigs. Spend hours behind the wheel and you're not nearly as tired. You're not and neither is the truck. That independent suspension soaks up the worst shock and vibration—the kind that can twist sheet metal and loosen joints and increase your maintenance costs. That's why Chevy trucks keep on working and saving for extra thousands of miles. Try one.

World's easiest way to say "Quality"!

In any company—in any land—there is one word that is instantly recognized and understood.

The word is "Cadillac"—and the meaning, of course, is "quality".

And it is understandable, we think, that Cadillac should have become a part of the universal vocabulary.

For its devotion to excellence has been of such a degree—and of such a tenure—that the car has become the world-wide symbol of everything good and desirable in a manufactured product.

This truth has never been more beautifully expressed than it is in the current Cadillac.

Inspiring to look at . . . thrilling to drive . . . rewarding to own—it is truly the master achievement of motordom's master builders.

And Cadillac has imposed on its construction the most rigid standards and restrictions ever placed over the assembly of a motor car.

More than fourteen hundred separate inspections now guard the quality and goodness of every Cadillac—and the results of this crusade for perfection can be seen . . . and felt . . . and sensed.

Here is superb craftsmanship in every body line . . . skillful tailoring and magnificent workmanship in every interior . . . and wonderful solidity and quietness in every mile of ride.

Don't you owe yourself a personal appraisal of this 1961 "car of cars"?

Your Cadillac dealer will provide the car and the keys for a demonstration at any time.

We know you'll agree that it says "quality" with an eloquence all its own.

32 Penna. Democratic Electors Hand-picked

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania's 32 Democratic presidential electors are the only ones in the nation hand-picked by the top nominees.

A little known Pennsylvania law says the state's electors must be chosen and certified by none other than the presidential candidate or by the vice president, acting as his agent.

Other states give the choice of electors to such individuals as the state chairmen or state committees, or select them in primary elections.

COMPLICATED BUSINESS

A poll of Pennsylvania's electors—both parties—indicated nearly everyone thought he had been chosen by his respective state chairman or at least by some other influential dignitary.

The law, of course, applies to all parties in Pennsylvania. But only one group of electors—the Democrats—will cast the formal vote. Sen. John F. Kennedy carried the state by more than 116,000.

That business of casting the formal vote is more complicated than it sounds.

FOR PARTY FAITHFUL

First, an individual must become an elector. This is an honor accorded party faithful—usually a high-ranking official. This year neither Kennedy nor his Republican counterpart, Richard M. Nixon, personally certified their choices for the electoral college.

The task was left up to Democratic vice presidential nominee Lyndon B. Johnson and Republican vice presidential candidate Henry Cabot Lodge.

After the initial certification, it was up to the voters Nov. 8 to decide which bloc of electors will cast the state's 32 votes.

TRADITION ENTERS IN

By tradition the electors are apportioned by congressional districts. No law requires that. That could all come from one ward—say, in Philadelphia—if the presidential nominee (or his Pennsylvania advisers) chose to do it that way.

Late Wednesday the State Elections Bureau and Gov. Lawrence took the next step in the process toward getting the electoral votes cast.

They certified the official vote returns to the General Services Administration in Washington, D. C.

NO DEFECTORS

Each elector has been mailed a certificate entitling him to cast his vote for president.

The next job the elector has is to show Dec. 19 at 10 a.m. for a breakfast with Lawrence in the governor's reception room.

From there it is a short walk to the green and gold State Senate to make the big decision. Actually, it probably won't be much of a decision for the corps of dedicated Democrats making up the 1960 Pennsylvania Electoral College.

On the other hand, there is no law that says they must vote for Kennedy. But there does not appear to be any defectors.

Coal Board Umpire Faces U. S. Charge

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP) — Dr. Thomas E. Larkin Sr., umpire for the Anthracite Board of Conciliation, has been indicted on charges of evading more than $7,000 in income taxes.

A federal grand jury Wednesday gave U. S. District Judge John W. Murphy a true bill charging Larkin with evading the taxes from 1956 through 1958.

Larkin, of Cresco, Monroe County, has been board umpire 23 years. His $20,000 annual salary is paid jointly by the United Mine Workers Union and the coal operators.

ANTLERLESS DEER SEASON ON SATURDAY

HARRISBURG (AP)—Antlerless deer seasons have helped cut down crop and other damage caused by feeding deer, says a State Game Commission official.

The official, Glenn L. Bowers, assistant executive director, added Thursday that the commission now believes the deer herd has been reduced to a fairly satisfactory level.

That is the reason, he explained, that the 1960 season on antlerless deer was cut to one day. The seasons have been three days in recent years.

SEASON ENDS TODAY

The new season opens and closes Saturday on the heels of the season on antlered deer, which ends today.

The idea of the varying seasons on antlerless deer, Bowers said, is to stabilize the size of the herd until more deer browse can be provided. Expressing the opinion that the idea has helped to cut down damage caused by over-browsing, Bowers added: "You can't look for gross improvement overnight."

51,902 KILLS

There were 51,902 antlerless deer reported killed last year during the three-day season as compared to 38,270 antlered deer taken in the two-week buck season. Bowers said there are about 230,000 licenses this year compared to some 370,000 in 1959.

If the weather is not too cold, he said, the turnout is expected to be good.

The Weather Bureau has predicted fair, cold weather for Saturday with early morning temperatures ranging from about zero in the northern counties to 15

AUTRY, MARTIN HEADLINERS IN WALK OF FAME

By BOB THOMAS
By Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—This being the Christmas season, it is time to take a Scrooge-like view of a local civic project—the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

The town's property owners have wisely started a campaign to spruce up Hollywood Boulevard, which has long had the appearance of Coney Island but little of its fun. Part of the plan consisted of ripping up sidewalks and installing $1.25 million worth of terrazzo walkways with the names of 1,500 famous stars imbedded in them.

The Walk of Fame is chiefly noted for its exclusion of Charlie Chaplin. Though he was Hollywood's greatest star, the businessmen who compiled the list of stars disapproved of his politics. Hence he was included out.

OTHER SELECTIONS

We won't argue the Chaplin bit today. Let's look and wonder at some of the other selections.

The merchants named their choices in four categories: motion pictures, recording, radio and television. Note that only entertainers in the mechanical mediums can qualify—none of those old-fashioned people who entertain in degrees in the southern portion of the state.

the flesh.

Thus a star could be imbedded four times in the terrazzo and two are: Gene Autry and Tony Martin. The former is a logical choice; Martin may have appeared in all four mediums—most entertainers have—but he now makes his principal living in night clubs.

TRIPLE KILLING

Twenty-eight stars get triple billing, including Jane Froman, Conrad Nagel, Basil Rathbone, Spike Jones, Jo Stafford and Fred Waring. Marilyn Monroe and Marlon Brando have to be content with one star only. Gale Storm gets three but none for motion pictures, which is where she got her name and fame.

Tab Hunter, movie and TV star whose singing talent has been widely debated, gets his star for recording only. Red Skelton, Don Ameche, Eve Arden and William Bendix get theirs for radio and TV but not for movies. Fred Astaire, with a bundle of Emmies to his credit, is listed for films alone.

Oscar winner Barry Fitzgerald is down for TV, in which I cannot recall his appearing. Same for Roland Young, who died before TV came in. Walter Brennan—the "real McCoy"—gets only a motion picture star, and Ward Bond only one for TV.

SENATOR IMPROVING

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—U.S. Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D. N. M., was reported in good condition at a hospital here today after a gastro-intestinal upset. He became ill in Denver, Colo., Thursday while attending a meeting there.

PHILADELPHIA WILL CONTROL STATE SENATE

By JACK LYNCH

HARRISBURG (AP)—Philadelphia Democrats likely will exercise solid control over the 1961 Senate with four of them in key leadership roles.

Sen. Anthony J. DiSilvestro Thursday was chosen for Senate president pro-tempore, who makes assignments to the committees which have a life-and-death hold on all legislation.

Sen. Charles R. Weiner, minority floor leader in the 1959-60 session, was picked at a caucus of the 25 Democratic senators to become majority floor leader in the session convening Jan. 3.

TIE-BREAKING VOTE

Sen. Israel Stiefel was continued in his post as caucus chairman. The fourth Philadelphian with a very important role is Lt. Gov. John Morgan Davis, whose tie-breaking vote is expected to give Democrats organizational control of the Senate.

DiSilvestro's election as president pro tempore still is subject to the vote of the full Senate, but Davis' vote is expected to swing it in view of the even split in seats between the two parties.

The Philadelphian would succeed Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, Dauphin County Republican who held the post the past 15 years and raised it to its dominant position among Senate jobs. DiSilvestro's role, however, would not be expected to be nearly as independent and powerful as Taylor's has been.

ONE EXCEPTION

The only non-Philadelphian in the Senate Democratic hierarchy are Sen. William J. Lane, Washington County, picked to succeed Sen. Frank Ruth, Berks, retired, as assistant floor leader, and Sen. George J. Sarraf, Allegheny, caucus secretary.

The rise of Philadelphia Democratic power in the previously Republican-dominated Senate is traced to the influence of Congressman William J. Green, who as chairman of the Philadelphia Democratic organization engineered a 326,000-vote majority for Democratic national and statewide tickets in the November elections.

Green spent three days here this week and took part in a joint meeting of House and Senate Democrats and in their separate caucuses to elect officers for 1961.

CHRISTMAS IN THE AIR ON TELEVISION

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—There's Christmas in the air—particularly television's air—during the next preholiday seven days.

Tonight, NBC's Hall of Fame introduces a new opera, "Golden Child," by Paul Engle and Philip Bezanon, a 90-minute production at 8:30-10 p. m. EST starring Jerome Hines, Patricia Neway and Brenda Lewis. The opera has a Christmas theme and is set in American Gold Rush days.

Sunday at 9-10 p. m. there's an NBC special, "Home for Christmas," with an unlikely combination of stars: Roy Rogers, Dale Evans, Douglas Fairbanks Jr. and Gale Storm. Then, at 10:30, there is the ABC "Sounds of Christmas" musical with Florence Henderson and Mandy Patinkin.

NBC's THRILLER

"Thriller," NBC's Tuesday night anthology series, has an interesting guest star: Mort Sahl, the sharp-witted, sharp-tongued comedian. The drama is called "Man in the Middle," and Mort is making his TV acting debut. NBC's

Actress Marilyn Maxwell To Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actress Marilyn Maxwell, 38, has assurance of an uncontested divorce next Thursday from producer Jerry Davis. They were married six years ago.

Her attorney said Thursday Davis had agreed on $500 a month alimony for seven years plus $150 a month support of their son, Matthew Paul Davis, 4.

Davis, 43, also agreed to pay off community debts of $7,200 and give her an apartment house in Beverly Hills.

second "White Paper" of the season, which follows, is a study of the sit-in movement.

"The Coming of Christ," NBC's Project 20 treatment of the Nativity, will be seen at 8:30-9 p. m. It is a tale told pictorially with photographs of art masterpieces. Highlight of Thursday night is the June Allyson Show where Harpo Marx will take the part of a deaf mute in a drama called "Silent Panic," 10:30-11 p. m.

TWO BETTYS ARE LEAVING AS LANDMARKS

NEW YORK (AP)—In a shift of corporate advertising policy, the faces of two of television's best known saleswomen are missing from the nation's screens: Betty Furness and "Betty Crocker."

Actress Betty Furness recently wound up 12 years of selling refrigerators, ranges and other equipment for Westinghouse. She is almost a TV landmark, and during recent political conventions was almost as familiar a figure as the chairman of the gatherings.

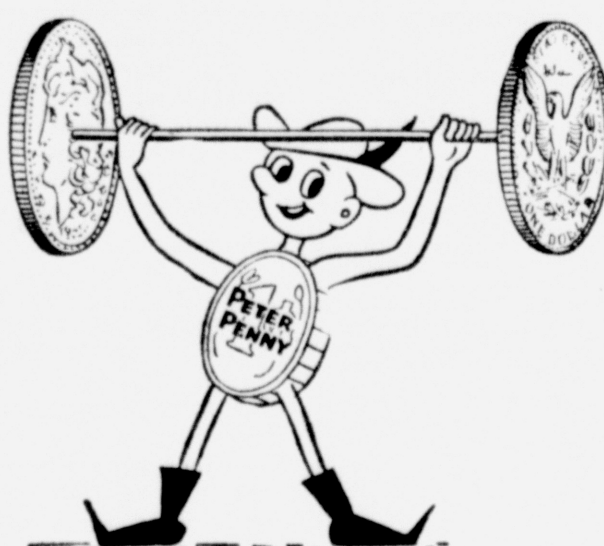

"Betty Crocker" is a fictitious name created by General Mills many years ago for a voice which sold its various food products. For the past 10 years, "Betty Crocker" on television and on radio has been Adelaide Hawley, a well known broadcaster and commentator. Although both companies have decided to dispense with their Bettys as television figures, Betty Furness continues on in a consultative capacity with Westinghouse. Adelaide Hawley will continue to be the voice of Betty Crocker, even if we never see her.

Both women, for the first time in years, are free to accept other broadcasting work—commercials or otherwise. And both are expecting to run into some problems in picking up the threads of the careers they left to become company "spokeswomen."

"It's too soon to go firmly on the record about this," said Miss Furness, "but there's no question that I'm meeting some resistance. Obviously I don't leave Westinghouse to do the same thing for somebody else—at the same time I wouldn't turn my back on all commercials. But I did feel that if I were going to be able to do anything else, I would have to make a clean break. In the past couple of years I haven't been able to clear enough time ahead to take any acting jobs."
